SILVER, COPPER AND LEAD.

Silver was quoted yesterday at $1.10 per ounce; copper at $17.00 per 100 pounds, and lead at $5.25 per 100 pounds.

The Republicans of Maricopa county in their convention yesterday did well. They worked carefully and deliberately and the result is a ticket pronounced by the oldest settlers the strongest ticket ever nominated by the Republican party of this county. Every nominee is a true and tried Republican, well-known for his industry and untiring efforts for the advancement of the Territory. Every man has his home and his interests here, and as such a resident cannot fail to make a good official. Every element of the party is represented from the pioneer who fought Indians and made his own trail into the valley, to the young man of more recent residence. With such a ticket the Republicans can go before the people and consistently ask their support, and if voters consider their best interests they will elect the ticket without a break.

Yesterday afternoon a dispatch from Washington conveyed the intelligence that a Governor had at last been appointed for Arizona. The name of John B. Irwin, of Keokuk, Iowa, was sent by the President to the Senate for confirmation to that position. Arizona is to be congratulated upon obtaining for her executive a gentleman of such ability and attainments, a politician of such a high rank and National reputation as is John B. Irwin. He is one of the foremost merchants of his city, but has won laurels in the political arena. He has been honored by election to the office of Mayor of Keokuk, has several times served in the State Legislature and was Governor of the Territory of Idaho under the Garfield-Arthur régime. He is a magnetic and forcible speaker and is ever in active demand in all public assemblies. He is highly thought of by his neighbors, deservedly popular by reason of his sunny temperament, tact and courtesy. He is small in stature, yet has upon him the unmistakable stamp of a commanding nature. He is in his fortieth year and has an attractive family, who will no doubt become residents of Phoenix.

OUR CANDIDATES.

R. C. POWERS.

Governor R. C. Powers, the nominee for Council, is a man who has had much experience in the political world, a man of excellent attainments, of rare intelligence, and a speaker who commands the interest of all who hear him. He was born in Ohio in 1836, derived a knowledge of the rudimentary branches from the common schools, afterward entering the University of Michigan. After several years spent in that institution he removed to Schenectady, N. Y., where he took his degree from that famous university, Union College, and after the conclusion of the war was further honored with the degree of Master of Arts.

Upon the breaking out of the war he at once enlisted and rose through the subordinate ranks to the distinction of Lieutenant-Colonel. He was much of the time in the Army of the Cumberland, serving at different periods upon the staffs of Generals Sherman and Thomas as Adjutant General in the Fourth Army Corps.

After the war, Colonel Powers went to Mississippi and, having faith in the future of the conquered country, bought a large cotton plantation. He assisted in the reconstruction of the State and in 1869 was elected Lieutenant-Governor. In 1872 he was chosen, by a flattering majority, Governor, and filled the office with credit for the ensuing two years.

In 1878 Governor Powers came to Arizona and accepted a position in the office of the Surveyor-General. For the last five years he has been a resident of Maricopa county, having extensive land and canal interests in the Lower Gila, near Gila Bend.

Personally Governor Powers has an attractive presence; he is well known throughout the county. He is combative and energetic and will leave far behind in the political race Mr. C. Meyer Zulick, of New Jersey.

JOSEPH B. MULLEN.

J. B. Mullen, nominated for Assemblyman, is a man of mature years, having been born in Iowa in 1842. Adventurous in his youth he emigrated to California in 1860, and engaged in stock-raising and farming in Butte and San Jose counties. He came to Arizona in 1885, and has since been a resident of Tempe, farming a large tract southeast of that place, as well as attending to a considerable band of cattle grazing on the Gila River bottoms. He is a married man of large family, and is considered as one of the pillars of the section in which he resides. He is a staunch and unswerving Republican and has ever been an effective laborer in the politics of his local county. He is successful as a business man, keen and yet kindly, and will be eminently satisfactory to Maricopa County as a representative in the Sixteenth Legislative Assembly.

EDWIN S. GILL.

The second man on the ticket for the Assembly, was born in Union county, O., in 1860 and was raised upon a farm, his life being that of the usual farm boy in that State, his winter months being spent in school. His father dying before he could go to college, young Gill was compelled to shift for himself and entered the office of the Richmond Gazette as a printer's apprentice working the first year at $2 per week. Having a desire for newspaper work he turned his attention to that and after several years service on country papers in both Ohio and Michigan tried metropolitan journalism commencing as a reporter in Detroit from whence he went to Cincinnati and was there advanced in his profession until he occupied one of the editorial chairs on the Cincinnati Evening Post. He first came west in 1885 and has held various positions on different papers in California, throughout which State he is well known, his last work there being as Managing Editor of the Los Angeles Tribune, which paper he raised from a secondary position to the foremost paper on the Pacific Coast, outside of San Francisco. His work since coming to Arizona and founding THE REPUBLICAN is too well known to need any comment. Mr. Gill is a man whose success in life is entirely due to his individual efforts and the same energy that has ever marked his career will be devoted to his party this fall in the advancement of the entire ticket.

JOHN B. MONTGOMERY.

The Republican candidate for Sheriff is a man of whom nothing derogatory can be said. On the contrary, volumes might be filled with records of his good deeds and the golden opinions of his fellow citizens. He has occupied such a prominent, yet unostentatious part in this community for so many years that all have found an opportunity to admire alike his rugged simplicity and his sterling and unflinching integrity.

He is now in his sixty-fourth year, having been born in Macon County, Illinois, in 1826. He came West in 1853 and mined for several years in California, going thence to Idaho, where he engaged in mining and stock raising.

He came to Arizona in 1864, prospected and placer mined for a while, encountering fearfully the savages who lurked at that date in every ravine surrounding Prescott. In 1868 he moved to Phoenix, and has since been a resident upon his now valuable farm, located just North of Phoenix and embracing 200 acres. He has made agriculture and dairying pay and is now one of the wealthiest members of our community.

He has served several terms as Supervisor of the county and in that arduous and important office has shown himself possessed of executive talent of no mean order. His blood is up, he will throw himself into the campaign to win and win he will. Aided by the votes of his thousands of friends, John B. Montgomery will step into the Sheriff's office on the first day of the new year and will institute reforms in Court House management that will more than meet with the approbation of every tax payer.

FRANCIS A. SHAW.

For Treasurer, one of the strongest men in the Republican party has consented to make the canvass. F. A. Shaw, than whom no citizen can be more highly esteemed, is a tower of strength to his party and will assist in its victory in November.

He is a native of Tennessee, and is now in his fifty-eighth year. He was early identified with frontier progress, joining the great exodus to California in 1850. He mined and farmed in California and Nevada until 1870, when he traveled across the deserts to cast his lot in the Salt River Valley.

During his first year's residence here he was appointed by Governor A. P. K. Safford as a member of the first Board of Supervisors of Maricopa County and assisted at the county's organization in 1871. At the succeeding election he was elected Supervisor, after which for a time he was District Court Clerk under Judge Tweed. Subsequently he was with John Y. T. Smith in McDowell. Returning to Phoenix he was appointed County Treasurer, to succeed John W. Owens, deceased, and was afterward elected to a term in the office. On the death of J. W. Shoemaker, he resumed his old position of Clerk of the court, retaining it until 1885, when he resigned to cultivate a fine farm, upon which he now resides, east of Phoenix. He also found time in 1881 to administer the office of Mayor of Phoenix, which he did with honor. He has a wife and three children, and is a firmly fixed pillar in Maricopa County.

WALTER S. JOHNSON.

The Convention made a happy choice when its preference fell upon such an excellent citizen of Tempe for the office of Recorder. Walter S. Johnson is a young man eminently qualified for the position to which he has a laudable aspiration, and if push in the campaign and true worth will count, he will surely win the fight. He is 31 years of age, came here from Chicago seven years ago and has since been prominently identified with the mercantile interests of Maricopa County. For most of the time he has been engaged in the lumber business and for nearly four years has had charge of H. W. Ryder's establishment at Tempe. He was warmly pushed by his local delegation.

JOHN GRAY.

The nominee for Assessor is a solid citizen of high worth, who has been a resident of Arizona since 1870. He came here from Philadelphia, in which city he was born in 1846. Mr. Gray has been all his life engaged in commercial pursuits and is now connected with T. J. Trask. He is a conservative business man, of unblemished character. He is justly appreciated by many friends and will poll a heavy vote. If vent and active campaigning will gain a place then the responsible place of Assessor will surely be filled by the Republican candidate.

WEBSTER STREET.

The nominee for District Attorney, is a gentleman who has won distinction both as a counselor and as a barrister. Eloquent in his pleadings and deeply read in the law, he has commanded a high position among the attorneys of this county since his arrival here over four years ago. He is now in Yuma, where he is engaged upon one of the most important cases of the year, and the nomination came to him without solicitation and will be a surprise to him. Nevertheless he is too good a Republican to not prepare for the fray and push forward with all his most effective eloquence and energy to make for the Republican ticket a glorious victory.

JESSE B. WOODWARD.

For Probate Judge has been nominated a man who, though not long in this community, has already attached to himself a host of friends. Jesse B. Woodward was born in Indiana fifty years ago. His inclinations early were fixed upon the practice of law and for twenty-five years he has been a practicing attorney. For the major portion of that period he pleaded before the courts of St. Louis and Memphis, and with much success. Feeling the need of a balmy air for his family he located in Phoenix about two years ago and has already won for himself a lucrative practice. He is a clear and logical counselor in all law matters and would make for Maricopa county a Probate Judge with whom no fault could be found.

JAMES T. PRIEST.

The representative given Tempe upon the ticket for Supervisor is James T. Priest. He was born in Canada 59 years ago, his parents coming to the United States when he was but 4 years old. He was one of the early settlers in California and lived there for many years. He came to Arizona in 1871 and shortly thereafter engaged in the mercantile business in Tempe. In 1881 he retired from storekeeping and has since cultivated a fine farm of 320 acres west of Tempe. He is a consistent and steadfast Republican, and has several times been honored with local offices, the duties of which he has discharged with credit. His precinct is a unit for him and scarcely a dissenting vote will be placed in the ballot box at the Butte City in November upon the candidacy of J. T. Priest. He will be elected and by a strong majority.

E. B. KIRKLAND.

"Brent" Kirkland, as his familiar spirits call him, has added strength to the ticket by consenting to have his name appear thereon as a candidate for Supervisor. No one is better known from one end of the county to the other than is Brent Kirkland and no man who could have been selected would have polled a heavier vote. Capable and painstaking he will fill the office most satisfactorily.

He is now in the prime of life, 37 years of age. He came to Arizona from his birthplace, Hannibal, Mo., in 1872, and has since that time been prominent in all that concerned the progress of his chosen home. He is an expert accountant, and when elected Treasurer in 1884 was of inestimable service to the county in straightening out a mess of tangled figures into which the county books had become thrown. Beside his term in the Treasurer's office he served two as a Deputy Recorder. He is thoroughly familiar with the work to be done, and, if the people of Maricopa County are solicitous of their financial welfare, will apply his knowledge to good effect in the office of Supervisor.
